

An Evening Experience with Dickinson & Morris

The Pork Pie Experience

Dickinson & Morris invite groups of people (minimum 18, maximum 50) to visit their working bakery in the evenings (at a pre-arranged time, between 5.30pm and 7.30pm) for their popular Pork Pie Experience.

The Group is greeted by a member of the Dickinson & Morris team and after removing their coats, hats, wrist watches and jewellery they are asked to put on an apron and a paper hat and wash their hands.

A step by step demonstration of hand raising a Melton Mowbray Pork Pie incorporates the intriguing story of how Melton Mowbray became involved with pork pies and the numerous points that make the authentic Melton Mowbray Pork Pie so unique.

Hand Raise Your Own Melton Mowbray Pork Pie

Each member of the Group then receives pastry, meat and a dolly and is invited to hand raise their own Pork Pie.

Tasting and further discussion allows ample time not only for questions about Pork Pies, Dickinson & Morris, Ye Olde Pork Pie Shoppe and The Sausage Shop but also, if you so wish, to purchase products from the Shoppe.

The following morning the Pies are baked and jellied and are ready for collection from 1pm. Each person receives the very same Pork Pie they personally made the previous evening.

It is said "The Taste of the Pie is in the Eating" (an old Melton Mowbray Proverb!) and on these occasions nothing is quite as memorable as eating a Pork Pie raised by one's own hands.

An Evening Experience with Dickinson & Morris

The Sausage Experience

Building on the popularity of our Pork Pie Evenings, Dickinson & Morris have now introduced The Sausage Experience.

The Sausage Shop, right next door to Ye Olde Pork Pie Shoppe, is limited in space so The Sausage Experience can only accommodate a maximum group size of 15 people - perhaps small but certainly exclusive.

The participants are appropriately attired (removing jackets and jewellery etc and donning aprons and hats) and receive a comprehensive demonstration in the traditional art and craft of making sausage.

Everyone then exercises their skill at linking the sausage - all of which they can later take home.

After cleaning down there follows a glass or two of wine and a Sausage Buffet - a substantial tasting session from a selection of the many sausage varieties on display.

The Sausage Experience takes place four nights a week, Monday to Thursday evenings, starting anytime after 5.00pm but before 7.00pm.

For further details please contact our Office at Ye Olde Pork Pie Shoppe on 01664 562341.

How to Book a Visit

1. In the first instance please telephone our Office on 01664 562341 to enquire about availability and verbally book a date.
2. Complete the adjacent booking form (confirming your telephone booking), and within 14 days return to Dickinson & Morris together with a non-refundable deposit of £50. The booking is secure only upon receipt of the deposit.
3. In compliance with Health & Safety legislation all people attending either the Pork Pie or the Sausage Experience must be aged 16 or over.
